CEREDO — Little Victories Animal Rescue hosted its annual Sweetheart Dinner Monday at Rocco’s Ristorante in Ceredo.

Sara Dempsey, Little Victories executive director, said this year they were able to meet their goal of $15,000 but she anticipates that more donations are on the way.

“This is a yummy way for people to support our mission,” she said.

Located in Ona, Little Victories is the only no-kill animal shelter in the Tri-State, caring for around 100 pets, 70 dogs and 30 cats, on a $1,000 per day budget.

“We are dedicated to saving lives,” Dempsey said. “And it is through events like these that we are able to get the financing we need to provide a safe home for these animals.”

One a daily basis, Dempsey said the shelter goes through 185 lbs. of dog food and as well as several pounds of kitty litter, both of which do not come cheap.

She said they are always looking for volunteers and those still wishing to donate can do so at www.littlevictories.org/donate.
