PLAYMATES OLYMPICS – Playmates Child Development Centers ended the Summer Camp program with Summer Olympics. During the summer, children would learn about a country, then choose a country they would like to represent. They also make a presentation using Lego blocks of that country. The Olympics, conducted at Paul T. Billups Park, had a variety of events including parachute game, tug-of-war, volleyball, races of conventional and on cups and other activities. WCN photo by Diane Pottorff