Wayne County celebrates veterans

WAYNE HONORS – Town of Wayne honored veterans with a ceremony at Wayne Veterans Memorial Park Sunday. The Boy Scouts conducted a flag-burning ceremony while members of the Wayne High School JROTC conducted the flag raising of the different branches, POW-MIA and the American flags. Pins were given to each of the veterans attending. WCN photos by Diane Pottorff
