GATHERED – Above, a large crowd gathered on the Marshall University campus Friday to remember the 75 people killed in the historic plane crash Nov. 14, 1970. Tommy Shoebridge, brother of Teddy Shoebridge, quarterback of the 1970 team, asked his younger brother, Terry, and the rest of the Shoebridge family to come meet the Marshall family. They are seated in the front row. Below, Coach Doc Holliday stands with the members of the Ceredo Volunteer Fire Department following the laying of the wreath and shutting off the Memorial Fountain. WCN photos by Diane Pottorff

REFLECTING – Marshall University students (left) prepare to hand participants, including relatives of the plane crash victims and members of the 2014 football team, a white rose to be placed along the side of the Memorial Fountain as the name of each victim is read. Right, Tommy Shoebridge prepares to address the crowd as Student Body President Duncan Waugaman looks on.